RESEARCH COMPLIANCE

Schoolcraft College values research as a means of expanding knowledge, enhancing professional skills of faculty and staff, and improving the quality of learning on and off campus. The purpose of this Policy is to protect research participants (Schoolcraft students, faculty, and staff), support the use of best practices, prevent survey fatigue, and ensure regulatory and legal compliance. Schoolcraft College's Research and Analytics department is responsible for ensuring the rights, privacy, dignity, and welfare of human subjects involved in studies conducted by the College's students, staff, faculty, or visiting researchers. Prior authorization must be obtained from Research and Analytics to conduct Human Subjects Research or institutional data collection at Schoolcraft College.
