TUITION AND FEES

It is the responsibility of the Board of Trustees to determine tuition rates and establish new fees for credit classes.

The Board of Trustees directs the Administration to establish a reasonable fee schedule to help defray the costs of appropriate services, laboratory classes, and other educational experiences. The Board recognizes the fact that those students who benefit most from such services, laboratory programs, and other educational experiences shall pay their fair share of the cost.

The Board of Trustees directs the Administration to establish appropriate course fees for Continuing Education classes; taking into consideration market pricing, competition in the area, and the expenses associated with each class.
