TUITION AND FEES REFUND—CREDIT CLASSES

The length of the refund period is calculated on a prorated basis.

Refunds for tuition and fees are processed only after the student has dropped the class(es)

Tuition and associated course fees are refundable when the student drops during the refund period. The registration and student services fees are only refunded when a student drops all of his/her classes during the refund period(s) for a given semester/session.

Generally speaking, there will be no exceptions to the refund, however students may appeal using the College's online system when there are extenuating circumstances.
